The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 28, to Tuesday January 31, 1792.

Weſtminſter, January 31.

THIS Day His Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE many Proofs which you have given of your affectionate Attachment to My Perſon and Family leave Me no Doubt of your participating in the Satisfaction which I derive from the happy Event of the Marriage which has been celebrated between My Son, the Duke of York, and the eldeſt Daughter of My good Brother and Ally the King of Pruſſia: And I am perſuaded I may expect your chearful Concurrence in enabling Me to make a ſuitable Proviſion for their Eſtabliſhment.

Since I laſt met you in Parliament, a Definitive Treaty has been concluded, under My Mediation and that of My Allies the King of Pruſſia and the States General of the United Provinces, between the Emperor and the Ottoman Porte, on Principles which appear the beſt calculated to prevent future Diſputes between thoſe Powers.

Our Intervention has alſo been employed, with a View to promote a Pacification between the Empreſs of Ruſſia and the Porte; and Conditions have been agreed upon between Us and the former of thoſe Powers, which We undertook to recommend to the Porte, as the Re-eſtabliſhment of Peace on ſuch Terms appeared to be, under all the exiſting Circumſtances, a deſirable Event for the general Intereſts of Europe. I am in Expectation of ſpeedily receiving the Account of the Concluſion of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, Preliminaries having ſome Time ſince been agreed upon between thoſe Powers.

I have directed Copies of the Definitive Treaty between the Emperor and the Porte, to be laid before you, as well as ſuch Papers as are neceſſary to ſhew the Terms of Peace, which have been under Diſcuſſion during the Negotiation with the Court of Peterſburgh.

I regret that I am not yet enabled to inform you of the Termination of the War in India: But the Succeſs which has already attended the diſtinguiſhed Bravery and Exertions of the Officers and Troops under the able Conduct of Lord Cornwallis, and the recent Advices from that Quarter, afford reaſonable Ground to hope that the War may be ſpeedily brought to an honourable Concluſion.

The friendly Aſſurances which I receive from Foreign Powers, and the general State of Affairs in Europe, appear to promiſe to My Subjects the Continuance of their preſent Tranquillity. Under theſe Circumſtances I am induced to think that ſome immediate Reduction may ſafely be made in Our Naval and Military Eſtabliſhments; and My Regard for the Intereſts of My Subjects renders Me at all Times deſirous of availing Myſelf of any favourable Opportunity to diminiſh the Public Expences.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

It will, I am perſuaded, give you great Satisfaction to learn that the extraordinary Expences incurred in the Courſe of laſt Year, have, in a great Meaſure, been already defrayed by the Grants of the Seſſion. The State of Our Reſources will, I truſt, be found more than ſufficient to provide for the remaining Part of thoſe Expences, as well as for the current Service of the Year, the Eſtimates for which I have directed to be laid before you.

I entertain the pleaſing Hope, that the Reductions which may be found practicable in the Eſtabliſhments, and the continued Increaſe of the Revenue, will enable you, after making due Proviſion for the ſeveral Branches of the Public Service, to enter upon a Syſtem of gradually relieving My Subjects from ſome Part of the exiſting Taxes, at the ſame Time giving additional Efficacy to the Plan for the Reduction duction of the National Debt, on the Succeſs of which our future Eaſe and Security eſſentially depend.

[Price Eight-pence.]

With a View to this important Object, let Me alſo recommend it to you to turn your Attention to the Conſideration of ſuch Meaſures as the State of the Funds, and of Public Credit, may render practicable and expedient towards a Reduction in the Rate of Intereſt of any of the Annuities which are now redeemable.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The continued and progreſſive Improvement in the internal Situation of the Country will, I am confident, animate you in the Purſuit of every Meaſure which may be conducive to the Public Intereſt. It muſt, at the ſame Time, operate as the ſtrongeſt Encouragement to a Spirit of uſeful Induſtry among all Claſſes of My Subjects, and, above all, muſt confirm and increaſe their ſteady and zealous Attachment to that Conſtitution, which we have found, by long Experience, to unite the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Liberty and Order, and to which, under the Favor of Providence, all Our other Advantages are principally to be aſcribed.

THE Diſpatches which have been received this Day from Lord Cornwallis, &c. are ſo extenſive that they could not be printed in To-day's Gazette, but will be publiſhed as an Extraordinary Gazette To-morrow.
